

Diane Hood

PRESIDENT & CEO Mennonite Village

Diane joined Mennonite Village as President and Chief Executive Officer in March 2022, bringing more than three decades of senior living leadership experience shaped by her long tenure at Mary's Woods at Marylhurst in Lake Oswego, Oregon. During her 28 years with the organization—one of the largest single-site continuing care retirement communities in the country—Ms. Hood held several key executive roles, including five years as President and Chief Executive Officer, five years as jointly appointed Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer, and 18 years as Chief Financial Officer.

Across these roles, she oversaw complex financial operations, major campus development initiatives, strategic planning, and multi-phase expansion projects. She also led organizational transformation efforts that supported growth, strengthened operational performance, and enhanced resident services and experience. Her leadership included collaboration with mission-based boards, multidisciplinary teams, and external partners to ensure long-term sustainability and innovation in a large and evolving senior living environment.

A Certified Public Accountant, Ms. Hood began her career with KPMG serving middle-market and nonprofit organizations. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Management from the University of Oregon and a post-baccalaureate degree in Accounting from Portland State University. She has served on many nonprofit boards and currently serves on the board of Stephen's Place, a nonprofit providing housing and services to adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.
