VICE PRESIDENT OF CONSULTING & SENIOR EXECUTIVE SEARCH CONSULTANT AQORD Consulting

With over two decades of experience in nonprofit leadership and senior living sector, Suzette Davis brings a wealth of knowledge and a passion for organizational growth to her role as Vice President of Consulting & Senior Executive Search Consultant. Suzette's journey in this field has been marked by a deep commitment to helping organizations navigate complex transitions and achieve their fullest potential.

Suzette has worn many hats throughout her career – strategist, advisor, innovator, and leader. She has a knack for developing tailored strategies that address unique organizational challenges, always with an eye toward enhancing operational effectiveness and fostering community engagement. Her approach is holistic, blending her expertise in strategic planning and organizational development with a compassionate, values-based perspective.

Suzette's leadership style is all about collaboration and empathy, underpinned by sharp strategic thinking. She thrives on building high-performing teams and finding common ground among diverse stakeholders. It's this ability to bring people together, coupled with her innovative problem-solving skills, that has allowed her to successfully implement programs that make a real difference in the lives of those served by the organizations she works with.

In her role at AQORD, Suzette is excited to leverage her experiences to expand AQORD Consulting services. She sees her position as an opportunity to help organizations not just weather times of transition or crisis but to emerge from them stronger and more focused on their mission.

Suzette has her MA in Strategic Communications from the University of Delaware and has a BS in Psychology with a Minor in Marketing from Auburn University. Her academic background provides a solid foundation for her work. She stays connected with the latest industry trends through active involvement in professional associations, always looking for new ways to drive innovation in the nonprofit and senior living sectors.
